

3. The variable self.speed is created when the bird first stores something in it. Try removing the line "self.speed = 3" in the Bird sprite and investigate what happens when a sprite uses a variable it never created.

4. Create a variable speed in Star, with the number 100 in it. Does this variable make any difference to how quickly the Bird moves?